B. Definitions

Net worth means current value minus debt. If net worth is negative, enter 0 (zero).

Investment value means the current balance or market value of these investments as of the day you submitted your FAFSA.

Investment debt means only those debts that are related to the investments.

Investments include:

- Bonds
- Certificates of deposit
- Commodities
- Installment and land sale contracts (including mortgages held)
- Money market funds
- Mutual funds
- Qualified educational benefits or education savings accounts (e.g., Coverdell savings accounts, 529 college savings plans and the refund value of 529 prepaid tuition plans); these accounts are reported as parental investments, including all accounts owned by the student and all accounts owned by the parents for any member of the household
- Real estate (do not include the home in which you live)
- Rental property (includes a unit within a family home that has its own entrance, kitchen, and bath rented to someone other than a family member)
- Stocks
- Stock options
- Trust funds
- UGMA and UTMA accounts (NOTE: UGMA and UTMA accounts are considered assets of the students and must be reported as an asset of the student on the FAFSA, regardless of the students dependency status. Do not include UGMA and UTMA accounts for which you are the custodian but not the owner.)
- Other securities

* This form must be submitted by the priority deadline to ensure a determination of eligibility before the Fee Due Date. Students may still apply for aid after the priority deadlines, but EFSC cannot guarantee that late submissions will be notified of aid eligibility prior to the Fee Due Date.

Investments do not include the home in which you live; cash, savings and checking accounts; the value of life insurance and retirement plans (401[k] plans, pension funds, annuities, non-education IRAs, Keogh plans, etc.).

Business value does not include the value of a small business if your family owns and controls more than 50 percent of the business and the business has 100 or fewer full-time or full-time equivalent employees. For small business value, your family includes (1) persons directly related to you, such as a parent, sister or cousin, or (2) persons who are or were related to you by marriage, such as a spouse, stepparent or sister-in-law.
